Declaration of monuments and world heritage

†1122. SHRI LALIT KISHORE CHATURVEDI:
DR. GYAN PRAKASH PILANIA:

Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) has declared thousand of monuments of the country as world heritage and national importance;

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) if so, circle-wise separate lists of monuments declared as world heritage and those of national importance; and

(c) the details of existing arrangements including expenditure incurred on protection and conservation of monuments declared as world heritage and of national importance in Rajasthan?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) There are 3667 monuments of national importance in the country of which 19 are included in the World Heritage List. Besides, there are 3 cultural and 5 natural World Heritage Sites, which are not under the control of the Archaeological Survey of India.

(b) The list of the monuments included in the World Heritage List and number of monuments declared as of national importance are given in the Statement-I and II (See below).

(c) In Rajasthan, 161 monuments/sites are declared as a national importance; no monument has been inscribed on the World Heritage List so far. Centrally Protected Monuments in Rajasthan are maintained and conserved by the Jaipur circle of the Archaeological Survey of India headed by a Superintending Archaeologist. He is assisted by archaeologists and conservators. For better control, the Circle is divided into 9 sub-circles under Conservation Assistants who look after the general maintenance including watch and ward and conservation work. The expenditure by the Jaipur Circle in 2006-07 was Rs. 302 lakhs.
